Town Topics.

What next?

A public reading room for White Oaks.

J. W. Roberts, nephew of Sheriff Roberts, of Lincoln, is visiting here.

A fine stock of Holiday goods at Goodman, Ziegler & Co.'s store.

Get neat New Year calling cards at the Eagle printing house.

Mr. Whiteman and son Joseph leave for Roswell tomorrow.

The best stock of overcoats, cloaks, capes and jackets at G. Z. & Co.'s.

Gold watches, chains, charms and jewelry of every description at Mrs. Timoney's.

The style of New Year cards for '92 is the heavy, plain, bevel-edged, white Bristol.

Christmas is coming, but Levin W. Stewart's Xmas GOODS are already here. Peruse his ad, and profit thereby.

Buy your Xmas presents of G. Z. & Co. They have a splendid assortment of useful and ornamental articles.

Five fine men's shippers, silk handkerchiefs, suspenders, neckties, fancy caps and saneros etc., at Goodman Ziegler & Co.'s bazaar.

The place to buy your "weed" is from Col. Weed. Standard choice brands, full size and sixteen ounces to the pound.

The front of the Hewitt block, in which the Eagle office is located, will be torn out on Monday, to be replaced by a dressed stone front.

Four to six feet of snow at Raton pass has delayed at least three days eastward mail, which will probably reach White Oaks Saturday morning.

Do not fail to see those beautiful oil paintings G. Z. & Co. are giving away with every $25 worth of goods bought at their store, during the next two weeks.

Sergt. E. Campbell and private E. Hahn, passed through this week enroute east, having been honorably discharged from the 10th Infantry, at Ft. Stanton.

Goodman, Ziegler & Co., are keeping right up with the procession and come to the front this week with a splendid proposition to their patrons. See their ad, for particulars.

John Y. Hewitt, White Oaks' representative to the Southwest Silver convention has been variously reported in the El Paso papers, as from Las Cruces, Lake Valley and other places.

A beautiful present for your wife is one of those magnificent "Holman" billboards, full of pictures, gilded, gilt corners, patent spring back, large print and beautifully illustrated. Big stock of them at Mrs. Timoney's.

A thousand (1000) pounds of superb dried peaches just arrived at the business emporium of our pioneer merchant W. H. Webb. See him and his pen has before buying elsewhere and save money and get choice fruit.

Next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, the Congregational pastor will preach a short Christmas sermon to the Sunday school. The subject of the evening sermon will be "The Star in the East." All are cordially invited.

On Christmas eve the Congregational Sunday school will have a Xmas tree from which gifts will be distributed for the pleasure and encouragement of the children. The distribution of presents will be preceded by brief and appropriate exercises of singing and recitations.

A wonderful improvement in electric lights for home, store, mining and industrial purposes in general, has been recently adopted by the New York Central railway company and other large corporations east. This office has a report giving details which will appear in the Eagle next week.

C. D. Bonney, nephew of Wm. Watson, returned today from a brief visit to the Jicarillas. Work is progressing rapidly in the mining properties there and our people may as well prepare to hear of a big strike there any day soon. Look out for a "dandy" if the leads are over found in this district.

The grand ball that was announced for Xmas eve at the Athletic hall, has been postponed until Xmas night, on account of the entertainment at the Sunday school. Elaborate preparations are being made and it promises to be the affair of the season. Let those who have had the least impression that White Oaks are an ordinary mining camp and our mine devoid of taste, cast an eye on the Christmas ball program.

On Christmas eve a grand ball and supper will be given and no pains spared to make it the most enjoyable occasion ever attempted there.

Xmas day there will be a sweepstake horse race for cow ponies only, and various other entertaining features are anticipated. Everybody is cordially invited.

A son of Mr. M. D. Pomeroy, a merchant of Gibraltar N. C., was so badly afflicted with rheumatism for a year or more as to be unable to work or go to school. His father concluded to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm on the boy. It soon cured him and he has since walked over a half mile to school and back every school day. 50 cent bottles for sale by Dr. M. G. PADEN.

Full sets of patent blanks for sale at the Eagle office.

The El Paso papers assure the public through their columns, that "the El Paso committee will come to the front and make the promise at that railroad convention, good." Good! And we believe it.

The El Paso Times said that the White Oaks papers "needlessly attack El Paso because at a fixed day and moment the survey notes promised by our delegation were not at a fixed place." The trouble was that the notes were at a fixed place and no fixed were they that El Paso seemed unable to move them at any given day or moment.

What hurt the worst was that the management on this end of the survey had to pay out nearly four hundred dollars extra for our good money, for an extra week's work by Mr. Ropes to find his connections and close up the survey. We have not noticed any El Paso mention about re-embursing us for this "needless" expense.

"Clara Belle."

The beautiful doll offered by Mrs. Timoney to the child receiving the largest number of votes, was received on Tuesday. It has been christened "Clara Belle" and all the ladies and children who have seen it have gone into ecstasies over the "little beauty."

The votes will be sold at two for five cents, and the balloting will be secret. No one will know how the vote stands until the ballots are counted, which will be at seven o'clock on Xmas eve, when the polls will be closed.

All the money realized over and above the actual cost of the doll will be turned into the treasury of the Congregational Sunday school.

This is an election where you can vote early and often, and the oftener the better. It is to be hoped that the Sunday school will realize a handsome surplus through Mrs. Timoney's generous offer, so come up and cast your votes. The result of the election will be announced during the distribution of the presents from the Xmas tree at the Congregational church, and the lucky child presented with the beautiful prize.

Dr. A. A. Bearup, the eminent and well known dentist, of Lincoln, Chavez and Bodey counties, will remain in White Oaks for, possibly, ten days longer and can be found at his old office with Dr. M. G. PADEN. His services have been in such constant demand since he came that he finds it necessary to stop in this paradise while longer. The doctor is supplied with all the appliances necessary for the painless extraction of decayed teeth and his proficiency in the profession has gained him an enviable reputation. His specialties: chronic abscess teeth extracted, the diseased parts removed and the teeth successfully and permanently replaced, natural, sound teeth transplanted from one person to another and all kinds of filling. This town is to be congratulated on the fact that Dr. Bearup will, in the near future, be one of its permanent residents. The doctor has practiced in this vicinity for the past six years, which is sufficient evidence of the reliability of his work.

Col. G. W. Richard of Las Vegas came in on Wednesday to attend to his own business. He is one of the old-time miners known as the seventy-niners. The colonel made fourteen trips into this country between White Oaks and Las Vegas from '79 to '82. The original company of four, of whom the colonel was one, who came here, went first to the Rio Bonito country and afterward became personally interested in White Oaks mining properties early in '80. The Old Anaconda will soon give the public some reminiscences of the early history of this camp. Col. Richard had the honor and glory (always connected with the newspaper business) of starting the first newspaper ever published in Lincoln county. J. H. Wise, one of the colonel's associates, embodied several positions in one, on that paper.

The Messrs. Ulrick and Sager, accompanied by assistant E. W. Parker and E. J. Sager, enjoyed a trip to the Carrizozo ranch on Thursday, where they were very gladly and hospitably entertained by the Hon. Wm. H. McDonald and his accomplished wife. They now extend the beauties of the Carrizozo company headquarters and its surroundings.
